*Re: In the Matter of the Rural Health Care Universal Service Support Mechanism
WC Docket No. 02-60 / Ex Parte Communication
Notice of Meeting with the Wireline Communications Bureau*

Dear Ms. Dortch:

My name is Ken Fellman and I am an attorney representing Colorado Health Care Connections ("CHCC") and Rocky Mountain Healthnet ("RMHN"), collectively Colorado Telehealth Network ("CTN"). My client has filed Comments in WC Docket No. 02-60 (In the Matter of the Rural Health Care Universal Service Support Mechanism).

On September 27, 2010, myself, along with Steve Ward, Executive Director of CTN, met with Sharon Gillett, Lisa Gelb, Jamie Susskind, and Divya Shenoy of the Wireline Communications Bureau, to discuss the referenced matter. Also in attendance at that meeting was Kerry McDermott of the Office of the Omnibus Broadband Initiative.

We spoke about issues raised in CTN's Comments and, more specifically, about CTN's recommendation to the Commission that (1) Paragraph 52 of the NPRM be revised to allow that short-term or operating leases be eligible for funding under the health infrastructure program; and (2) Paragraph 107 of the NPRM be revised to clarify that the term "participant" includes the Rural Health Care Pilot Program consortia created as a result of the Commission's Order of November 16, 2007 in this Docket.

Documents provided at the meeting include:

1. Comments of Colorado Health Care Connections and Rocky Mountain Healthnet dated September 7, 2010 and filed with the Federal Communications Commission that same day.
2. Summary of comments of other commenters in this docket related to the use of rural health care support mechanism for operating leases.

Pursuant to Rule 1.1206 of the Commission's Rules, an electronic copy of this letter and the attached summary document are being filed via the Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) in this matter.

Please feel free to contact me with any additional questions or concerns you may have.

Very truly yours,
KISSINGER & FELLMAN, P.C.
